FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 4/28/97

JOHN SHULTS, white male, Date of Birth 1/18/70, Inmate at the Montana State Prison, Deer Lodge, Montana, was interviewed by reporting Agent and ATF SA JOHN KAMORA. SHULTS had contacted an ATF hotline regarding information he claimed to have concerning fugitives in an unrelated case. After being advised of the nature of the interview and identity of the interviewing Agents, SHULTS provided the following information:

Sometime in 1994 SHULTS traveled to an unnamed city in northwest Arkansas with CHEVIE KEHOE. The location in Arkansas was a relatively short distance from Elohim City in Oklahoma. SHULTS and KEHOE went to a trailer located at Elohim City and met with 9 or 10 people who were unknown to SHULTS. During conversations with these individuals, issues concerning white supremacy and militia movements were discussed. Part of the discussions concerned "the delivery" that had to be done "very soon". SHULTS did not know what was meant by "the delivery" and KEHOE would not tell SHULTS what they meant.

After the bombing of the federal building in Oklahoma City, SHULTS saw pictures of TIMOTHY MCVIEGH and he now feels certain that one of the individuals he saw at Elohim City was MCVIEGH. SHULTS also advised that two of the other people at the trailer in Elohim City spoke with a German accent and that one of them may have been named ANDY.

SHULTS had been incarcerated since early 1995 and has had no recent contact with CHEVIE KEHOE or anyone he had seen at Elohim City. SHULTS had no way of knowing if this information actually had anything to do with the bombing at Oklahoma City. SHULTS was currently serving time on theft related charges at the Montana State Prison and was awaiting court proceedings on charges stemming from his escape from the Montana State Prison in 1996. Among the escape related charges SHULTS faced was a kidnaping charge, which carries a penalty of up to life imprisonment.
